W.P.(C)No.5238 OF 2007

Dated this the 19th day of March, 2007

A W A R D

The matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and the respondent has given rise to this writ petition which has been sent to the adalath. Today we discussed the matter with the counsel appearing for the appellant and respondent in the presence of the petitioner and the respondent.

2. The respondent Sheena filed a complaint before the police alleging cruelty. It is agreed that she is not interested in pursuing the matter. Steps will therefore be taken by both the petitioner and the respondent to inform the police about this aspect and take necessary steps either for referring the matter by the police or dropping the criminal complaint by the appropriate court.

3. A joint application for divorce will be filed within one week from today in the Family court, Calicut. That will be disposed of after the closure of the criminal complaint.

4. There are some movables in the house of Sheena which can be removed by the petitioner husband Ramachandran. A list of the movables which the petitioner husband can take from the house of the respondent with his consent is given below:

	Nos.
4 feet bed and cot	1
6 ½ feet steel amirah	1
Teak wood amirah	1
Gas cylinder	1
National Panasonic 20” Television	1
500 VA stabilizer	1
Electrical spares & wires	1
Computer table	1
Compute steel chair	2
Ceiling Fan (Usha 4, Padmini-1, Bajaj-1)	6 Nos. (Whatever available)
Framed mirror (Big size)	1
Teapoy	1
Dinning table with chair set (Teak wood)	1
National electric iron	1
Books	If available
Wiring tools	If available

He can remove the movables within two months after giving a weeks notice to the respondent. If the movables are not removed within the said period, the petitioner Ramachandran will have no claims over the movables.
